Here are 3 more cemeteries that are small and I would not put them on the blanks because none of the graves were marked.

1. This one is in Gates County about 3 miles east of Gatesville right in the front yard of a negro by the name of John Bonds. It is known as the Brown Cemetery. It is owned by Mr. Mot Brown, a merchant in Reduco. There are 25 unmarked graves. This cemetery is in very poor condition. Date of Survey August 8, 1938.

2. This cemetery is in Gates County on the White Oak road (country road) that leads from Highway #30 to Eure. It is right in front of the home of Lamb Howell. It is known as the Brown Cemetery and is owned by the Noah Felton estate. There are 15 unmarked graves. It is in very poor condition. Date of Survey August 9, 1938.

3. This cemetery is in Gates County on the White Oak road (country road) that leads from Highway #30 to Eure. It is right near Lamb Howell's home in a field owned by Mr. John Askew known as the "Katie Field". It is known as the Brown Cemetery. There are 6 unmarked graves. It is in poor condition. Survey made on August 8, 1938.

All the cemeteries that I have visited are white ones.
